

International Conference

Friday, 13.11. 2009

Zadar University

European Education – Concepts, controversies, perspectives

TEMPUS-Project „Learning for Europe“

Conference languages: Croatian, German, English

09.00 - 9:15 Opening Welcome

Zadar University, Zagreb University, Project management

European Education Area: Structures and Concepts

09.15 - 9.45

University of Zadar: Prof. Dr. Vican, State secretary of the Ministry of Science, Education and Sport of the Republic of Croatia

School development and educational policy on the way to Europe

09.45 – 10.15

University of Münster: Prof. Dr. Helmchen

European education – a critical look at concepts and reforms

10.15 – 10.30

Coffee break

10.30-11.00

University of Münster: Prof. Dr. Krüger-Potratz

Intercultural education as a cross-sectional task in educational policy, research and practice

11.00 - 11.30 Discussion

European Education: Multilingualism and Minorities

11.30 – 12.00 h

University of Zagreb: Prof. Dr. Gehrman

Multilingualism – an indispensable condition for European education

12.00 – 12.30 h

University of Klagenfurt/University of Ljubljana: Prof. Dr. Wakounig/Ass. Prof. Dr. Pecek-Cuk

Minority education – between tradition and European future

12.30-14.00 Catering

14.00 - 14.30

University of Tilburg: Prof. Dr. Spotti

From a language policy matter to a matter of language sabotage: the case of Arabic in Dutch primary schooling

14.30 - 15.00 Discussion

15.00 - 15.15 Coffee break

Regional experiences and perspectives: Educational reforms in Southeast Europe

15.15 –15.45 Uhr

University of Novi Sad: Prof. Dr. Jerković

University education in Serbia – reform experiences and perspectives

15.45 – 16.15

University of Sarajevo: Prof. Dr. Jaganjac

European education – a contribution to tolerance? Experiences from Bosnia Hercegovina

16.15 – 16.45 Discussion

16.45 – 17.45 CLOSING PANEL

„Learning for Europe“ - Consequences and perspectives for the region